“ You me, Gene was a quiet, sweet teddy bear of a man. I only wish I had made a point of getting to know him better.

I remember the year we exchanged ornaments at the Christmas party and his ornament included a great family memory.

Much love to your family!

“ Dad, I miss you so very much. I loved our time together, always laughing and joking. I especially love the last day we spent together, the day before you left, telling stories about when you and mom first started dating 😂😂 it was hysterical. Before I left you hugged and kissed me and told me you love me ❤️ I love you dad. I hope you are proud of the person I have become
