“ My heartfelt sympathy to you Phil & to the entire family. I have so many precious memories of Geneva. She was a woman of grace & dignity. She profoundly influenced my life in the many ways she loved and served her family and community. On many occasions I was welcomed in your home, and sat at your table to share a meal or to have Geneva share her caring heart as she asked about my family. She was a selfless woman who genuinely cared about and faithfully prayed for others.

My love and prayers continue for all of you. May you find comfort in knowing she is in our Heavenly Father's arms, free from sickness, sadness or death. She is truly free!

And Phil (Mr. Hermann :), she IS leaving the lights on for you!!

My love to all.... Bobbie, Pat, Beth, Shannon & Anna###imported-begin###Bobbie O'Leary###imported-end###

“ Our hearts go out to the entire Hermann family. You were great advocates for your mom, speaking for her when she was unable to speak. Assisting her with mobility when she was unable to move. I can still remember her giving your dad a hard time and then chuckling. She will be greatly by all.
