“ *Kaye,
Life takes people on different paths but I wish we would have lived closer and could have spent more time together. You are one of my big sisters and our souls are forever connected. I believe we will meet again. Until then...I'll remember you each time I see a bright colored sunset or a young girl wearing high heels and laughing joyously. Your spirit was beautiful and inspiring. I never complained to you about anything that you didn't comfort me with your positive encouragement. You were a peace maker and an inspiration. You always made all of us smile and I will miss your laughter and wisdom the rest of my days in this world.
Rest peacefully Kaye.
I love you,
Cathy*

“ My mom Marie Hunter worked with "Kay" for many years at Carnation and they became great friends. My mom just went to visit her a couple of weeks ago. I loved hearing the stories of the laughs those two shared. My mom is going to miss her very much. Her family is in our hearts and prayers. Kay, you are free from pain. May you now rest in peace.

With Much Love,
Marie Hunter

“ We will always miss you, Kay. I will always remember your laugh. When I visited you last, you made me laugh. When you were talking about mom eating chocolate at night and you said, "Oh, I better not talk about her. She's gonna be mad at me, and I'm gonna see her soon! Hahaha." Love you. Hope she's not mad at you, hahaha. Love, Randy and family.
