“ Better late than never they say - so here goes...We shared a ton of memories as kids. I have to many running through my mind to choose from. The last time I saw you we were 28. Ha ha ha... I remember that night. I wish we had stayed in touch. Thank you for being my friend. Rest in peace brother, rest in peace. ”

“ Glen, I am glad to have known ye... I know you and the world out there were irreconcilable in so many ways. I wish that it had not been only my good luck to have been your friend over these years, but that I could have had the power and influence to walk you from the dark part of your world to the lighter side: with hope, promise, and happiness.##imported-begin##Jerry Staudenraus##imported-end## ”

“ My most hart felt sympathy goes out to you Shirley and Julie. Greg Kaufmann is my son in law and a long time friend of Glen. He and his family are very saddened. Glen spent most of the previous week helping Greg build a shed in his back yard. Glen was a kind and loveing young man and will be missed by all who knew him well. Glen is in the arms of the lord now and no longer need suffer. May you find peace and comfort in knowing that your precious Glen will no longer suffer lifes heart aches.##imported-begin##Jill Inghram, Newhouse##imported-end##
