Harold "Jason" Butler 43 lost his fight to brain cancer on November 29th 2015. The family welcomes you to viewing from noon to 7 p.m., Friday, December 4, 2015 at Kayser's Chapel of Memories and to the funeral service at 2 p.m., Saturday, December 5, 2015 at the Othello Seventh-day Adventist Church, 736 E. Elm Street. Please sign the online guestbook or leave a note for the family at www.kayserschapel.com Arrangements are in care of Kayser's Chapel & Crematory.

He spent most of his life in Warden Washington and spent the last couple of years in Ephrata Washington. He was preceded in death by his younger brother BJ, his father Shorty, and his niece Clarice. He was proud to raise his two sons Blake and Austin with his wife and childhood sweetheart Charity by his side. He is also survived by his mother Sarah " Sue" Butler, sister, Sheryl Butler, brothers Ernie (Terry) Butler, Randy (Lori) Butler, Steve (Anita) Butler, Troy Butler, and Adam (Kathy) Butler. He had a large family of nieces and nephews and numerous friends whom he loved very much. Jason loved to watch the Detroit Lions (win or lose) and was very content just hanging out with his family and his pets, Especially his boxer Macaroni. He was a very loving and funny person and will be missed deeply. One comfort is to know that he was close to the Lord and said if we stay close to him too, we will see him again.

Instead of flowers, the family asked that donations be made to his go fund me accounts to help his family with the medical expenses.

I'm so sorry to hear about Jason. I remember that summer our boys played baseball together. That was a good summer!

Praying that you have peace, and strength. May God guide you through this difficult time.

“ Jason was born just 3 months before I married his oldest brother, Ernie. I am holding him in one of my wedding pictures. We took him with us on a trip we took to California in 1991 and he was good company for our son who was only one year younger than him. I remember he played Winds of Change, by Scorpion, over and over along with music from The Black Crows. We saw the redwoods, the ocean and went to Marine World Africa USA, but even though he had fun, Charity was never far from his thoughts. We miss him very much!

“ Charity & boys,

So many memories to choose from through out the two decades we've known each others families. Seeing our kids grow up & share laughs like us!

Going on a road trip to Franklin Falls with our kids. And my oldest wanting to drive shotgun with Jason in the mustang! Having dinner @ Papa Gallos! Or Jason getting my car out of the snow. My unforgettable memory will be when both our NFL teams won Nov. 22nd. Jason & I would sometimes text each other to give one another a hard time about our teams. We've done this for years! We texted that Sunday. It was lil gift from God. I didn't know it would be our last.. I will always Remember it. My prayers & thoughts are with y'all. I love you all.. Sib-

“ Charity and boys,

Thinking of your family during this time. The love between the two of you was evident to everyone. I remember the days at Warden High School and the two of you together. Our thoughts are with you.
