

Ida Radach

January 14, 1924 - October 23, 2016

Ida Esther (Goehner) Radach, 92, of Moses Lake, formerly of Wenatchee, died Sunday, October 23, 2016, at Lakeview Home Care, surrounded by her family.

Ida was born on January 14, 1924, to Frederick and Christina (Schaber) Goehner, the 8th of 10 children, in Kulm, North Dakota. In 1937, her family moved to Dryden, Washington and she graduated from Dryden High School in 1941. On June 4, 1943, Ida married Leo Richard Daniel Radach in Wenatchee. They made their home in Dryden, where they raised their two children, Jeannette and Marland. Ida and Leo owned and operated an orchard for 38 years in Dryden. Ida also worked at Liberty Orchards, Cashmere Bakery, Blue Star and many years at Cashmere Valley Bank. After Leo retired in 1983 they moved to Wenatchee. Ida and Leo were fortunate to travel to many areas in the United States, Hawaii, and in Europe. For 12 years they spent their winters in Desert Hot Springs, California. Ida was a member of the Dryden Community Church where she was active in many areas of the church.

Ida is survived by her daughter, Jeannette Winterroth of Vancouver, Washington; son and daughter-in-law, Marland and Linda Radach of Moses Lake; granddaughter, Nichole (Chris) Franklin and two great grandchildren, Rylan and Haddie of Moses Lake; grandson, Daniel (Macey) Radach of Moses Lake; sister, Edna Weedman of Puyallup; sister-in-law, Alma Radach of Wenatchee. She was preceded in death by her husband, Leo; her parents, 6 brothers, 2 sisters, and son-in-law, Cal Winterroth.

A memorial service will be held on Saturday, November 5, 2016, at 11 am at the Dryden Community Church, 6801 Dryden Ave., Dryden, Washington.

Tribute Wall

JK

“ Jennifer Kesterson lit a candle in memory of Ida Radach

jennifer kesterson - October 25, 2016 at 12:42 PM

JK

“ Ida was a dear friend and sister in Christ. I knew Ida through working at the bank, living in Heritage Haven and most of all, enjoying many years of worshipping together and doing activities at DCC church. Ida was a sweetheart, with a twinkle in her eye and a beautiful smile - she radiated the love of Jesus and was always eager to reach out to others. I know she will continue to shine for Jesus in heaven - rest in peace dear one and I love you. jennifer kesterson

jennifer kesterson - October 25, 2016 at 12:41 PM