

Ila Bock Wiser

December 29, 1922 - August 22, 2020

Ila Bock Wiser passed away on 8/22/2020, age 97, at Monroe House Retirement Center in Moses Lake, WA, where she had been a resident for the last 4 1/2 years. Ila was born at the family home to Fred and Clara Schoop Bock on December 29, 1922 in Appleton City, Missouri and was 1 of 9 children. She attended Potts school house and then Appleton City High School, graduating in 1940. In the early 1940's she attended Huff Business College in Kansas City, then worked at Lyndey Air for the Next 10 months. During the war, Ila worked in the office for North American Aviation and that is where she met her future husband, Bud Wiser. Bud and Ila were Married October 2, 1943, in Kansas City, Kansas. They eventually moved back to Appleton City, where they farmed and their children were born, Madonna Lee in 1949 and Ken Kelly in 1951. The family then moved out west, settling in Moses Lake, WA in 1956. They started a milk bottling company, fertilizer plant and farmed in the Columbia Basin. Ila was a member of the First Presbyterian Church since 1956, loved golf, cooking and taking care of her family. She is survived by 3 of her siblings JD Bock, Denver Colo, Allyne Schultze, Butler Missouri and Jayne Mcnabb, Butler Missouri. Her children Madonna (Paul) Engle of Marietta, Georgia, Ken (Susie) Wiser of Royal City, WA. Her Grandchildren Tracy (Craig) Brown of Wenatchee, Stacy (Kyle) Steinburg of East Wenatchee, WA and Travis (Amanda) Wiser of Ephrata, WA Grandchildren, Conrad, Kody and Kaylee Brown, Tyler and Kaden Steinburg, Rebecca, Roan and Canton Wiser. Ila was preceded in death by 4 siblings, her parents and Rebecca Wiser (daughter-in-Law) Ila was full of grace, love and kindness. The family has decided to not have a public memorial due to current events. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the First Presbyterian Church, Moses Lake or Assured Hospice, Moses Lake in Ila's name. The family would like to extend their thankfulness to Hospice, the Monroe House and its caregivers for their devotion to Ila in her last days.

Tribute Wall

RH

“ Wonderful woman-----I was truly blessed to know her.

Rick Honsowetz - August 29, 2020 at 06:52 AM

NT

“ When Ila retired from Jett-Aero at the Grant County Airport, I was hired to replace her. She was so kind and supportive of my transition to my new job. I always enjoyed visiting with her at the Presbyterian church. Good job Ila, you raised a wonderful family, and left many sweet memories. Condolences to her family.

Nancy Cook Tracy - August 27, 2020 at 01:17 AM

GV

“ The world has lost a ray of sunshine. To all of Ila's family please accept our deepest condolences.

greg and patty vehrs - August 26, 2020 at 09:07 PM