

James L Leet

September 18, 1955 - July 15, 2020

James L. Leet (Jim) passed away peacefully in his sleep July 15, 2020 at the age of 64. Jim was born in Conrad, Montana and thoroughly enjoyed rural life until moving to Seattle, WA with his family in 1969. Jim was born with a burning desire to understand how things worked and was endowed with the intelligence to satisfy his curiosity. His passion for understanding the world around him led him to a career as an electrician. Jim had a larger than life personality that was enjoyed by countless friends and loved ones. His boisterous laugh along with immeasurable charisma made Jim the truly unique man that he was. His many talents also extended into the arts. He excelled in sculpting, painting and drawing. He moved to Moses Lake in 2015, enjoying his retirement. Jim is survived by his son Spencer Leet, his mother, Wanda Leet, sister Rebecca Leet, sister Jackie Nelson, nephew, Corey Nelson and niece, Lacey Nelson.
