“ I was so glad to come across this "wall". Clyde I know it's going to be a difficult time for you and nothing we say will make much difference but please know we are thinking of you and hoping you find and keep the strength that Jan would want you to have to move forward each day with endless precious memories.

“ Jan, so glad we had our short but precious visit a few weeks ago. We had some really good times, but less and less of them after our lives got so busy. I have said a million times, I know, that Christmas would be so plain at my house if it weren't for your wonderful artful gifts you gave me over the years. Now I can hardly wait to get these out and hold them in my hands again and let the memories flow. I will miss you my friend until we sit at the craft table in heaven...joyous thoughts. Hugs my friend. Anita “ Eldon and I loved you and Clyde.. Our hearts are heavy. We saved each other at the Christmas parties. Clyde and Eldon only went if the other one went. Our husbands both had Jan's and they had lots of heart to heart conversations about us. We will keep an eye on Clyde for you. Love,Eldon and Jan Widmer
