

Javier Martinez Adame

March 3, 1955 - August 3, 2008

Javier Martinez Adame (Harvey) was born on March 3, 1955 in Crystal City, Texas to Concepcion and Estela Adame. He passed away on August 3, 2008. As a young boy the family settled in the Westlake area of Moses Lake.

Attending the local schools and graduating from Moses Lake High School in 1973. He then attended Big Bend Community College and received his degree in appliance repair. He owned and operated Adame Appliance Repair for several years. He was formerly married to Brenda Ferguson on March 27, 1976 and together they have two children, Raquel and Christopher.

Javier was a respected and well known man in our community. Harvey was an entrepreneur with so many ideas that he made reality. He was a skilled craftsman who made everything with his bare hands. He was an avid gardener and landscaper who amazed us with his creations. His passion was collecting antiques and loved to show them to everyone who visited with him. He had love and compassion for dogs (Tank). Outdoors was his favorite place to be. He enjoyed camping near Mardon and Buffalo Lake. Taking out his party boat was always a fun time. Fishing in the area lakes guaranteed a fish fry afterwards. The infamous seafood feasts had endless selection. He could be seen cruisin' on his motorcycle and enjoying the fresh air. He loved sitting around a camp fire with friends and family, listening to old rock and roll music and playing along with his harmonica and spoons.

Javier embraced life and was always there to lend a helping hand. He was blessed with many friends. He will be missed by those whose lives he touched.

Javier is survived by his mother, Estela Adame; three children, John Villarreal of Greeley, Co., Rachel (Hector) Alaniz, and Chris (Brenda) Adame; Four grandchildren, Vanessa and Adrian Alaniz, Jasiah and Jayden Adame; Four brothers, Oscar Martinez of Crystal City, Tx., Rolando Adame of Sunnyside, Wa., Roy Adame, and David Adame; three sisters, Nelvia Adame, Patsy Adame(Gino) , Sandy (Keto) Valdez; his best buddy, Jimmy Meza; and countless friends.

He was preceded in death by his father, Concepcion Adame and his brother, Cesar Adame.

Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated at 10:00 a.m. Tuesday, August 12, 2008 at Our Lady of Fatima Catholic Church with Father Felipe Pulido as celebrant. Interment will follow in Pioneer Memorial Gardens.

“ I remember when I first met Harvey. One day him and I were talking about birthdays . I told him when mine was and he had told me that if I were to make out a list of people I'd like to invite over for barbque drinks and what not he'd pay for it. Now keeping in mine I'd only been in Grant co. For maybe 4-5 months. Don't really know anybody. So Harvey invites his friends over threw me a birthday party. His friends buying me presents wrapping them everything. I felt so special thatday.

Since then from time to time I will see Harvey wearing a pair of cacky shorts with his favorite dark green t shirt the one with big old hole towards the bottom his straw hat he'd wear working outside in hot sun .he wore his eye glasses half way down his nose so then thatway when he looked up wards he could see you.a nods his head gives a slight wave continueing to water his fruit trees. Then when I was in hospital couple years ago in a coma Harvey came and visited me a few times. I sure do miss him.

“ I am so sorry for the loss of your son, brother, uncle, father and my pal, Javier. I was one of the fellas (along with Juan D., Sly G., Dave B. & Albert H.) who gave "Harvey" his nickname during our sophomore year of high school in 1970. I am quite proud that the name stuck for all these years. I am even more proud to have been able to spend some time and see and visit with Harvey a few times since I've been back in the area the last 2+ years. A kind and generous man, he will truly be missed. Rest in peace, Big Harve!###imported-begin##Abe Shelby###imported-end##

“ Roy, Sandy, and all the the Adame Family, you are in my prayers and I am sure you will find comfort knowing your brother, father, son, uncle.....and friend touched alot of lives here on earth. He was a special person that will be missed but not forgotten. There is another angel in heaven to keep watch over all the ones he loves. Catch ya later Javier, may your family and friends find comfort when they think of their memories of your time here and thank God for loaning you to us for the 54 years that he did, Roy and Sandy, I know you two the best and believe me when I say I know what you are feeling right now, a brother's love is like no other and we have each known that love and that makes us blessed even more in our lives.
