“ Mom: Spending the many hours (over the last three years especially)with you and dad has been one of the most important things I have ever done. Our long talks gave me so much insight into your life and the love between for dad and your family.

I know you realize how much you have been loved on earth and how much you and dad, Susan all our other relatives who share heaven with continue to be loved.

You will never be forgotten and will be loved forever. 'Til we meet again, your loving daughter, Janet.##imported-begin##Janet L. Moberg##imported-end##
