

Jenaro Jimenez Jr.

February 4, 2025

Jenaro Jimenez Jr., age 71, passed away on February 4, 2025, in Wenatchee, Washington. He was born in 1953 in Brownsville, Texas, to Jenaro and Santa Jimenez.

Jenaro dedicated much of his life to being a truck driver, a profession he took great pride in. He had a passion for fishing, a hobby he enjoyed in very much. He was a valued member of Queen of All Saints Catholic Church, where he found community and faith.

Jenaro is survived by his daughter, Valeria Jimenez, and her spouse Nathan McGrew of Quincy, WA; his son, Roman Rodriguez, and his spouse Shannon Rodriguez of Ephrata, WA; his brothers, Estroberto Jimenez and Raul Jimenez; and seven beloved grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Jenaro and Santa Jimenez; his wife, Barbara Jimenez; his brother, Jose Jimenez; and his grandchild, Noah Eathan McGrew.

Jenaro's love for his family, his unwavering work ethic, and his kind-hearted spirit will be missed by all who knew him. May he rest in peace.
