

Jerald "Jerry" K. Kinkade

May 31, 1959 - April 17, 2013

Warden native Jerry K. "Jerry" Kinkade, 53, passed away Wednesday, April 17, 2013.

Jerry was born on May 31, 1959 in Prosser, WA and the family moved to Warden in the early 60's. During his school years, Jerry and his three sisters enjoyed many lively and happy times on the Warden farm riding motorbikes, swimming, and hunting. Jerry was also a life-long avid reader.

After graduation from Warden High School in 1978, Jerry worked for his family's trucking company and continued to work in the trucking business throughout his adult life. At the time of his death, Jerry enjoyed employment with Genie Industries of Moses Lake.

In his spare time, Jerry enjoyed bird hunting and fishing with close friends and his stepfather, Gordon. Together, the two spent many an hour searching the Columbia Basin looking for the perfect fishing hole.

Jerry is survived by his mother Barbara and her husband, Gordon Bradshaw of Moses Lake, father Jerald Kinkade of Quartzsite, AZ. Sisters: Joan Bertram (Bill) of Moses Lake, Carolyn Kinkade of Redmond, OR, and Cheryl Kinkade of Yardley, PA. Nephew: Scott Bertram (Jessica & Nolan) of Issaquah, WA & Niece: Becky Bertram of Portland, OR.

- You will be forever in our thoughts -

A memorial will be held at 10:00 a.m. on Wednesday, April 24th at the Guarding Angels Cemetery, 2595 Rd. L NE, Moses Lake, WA.

“ Dear Family, you may not remember me, but I worked for Jerry's dad in the early 70's right out of collage. It was with heavy heart I read the news of Jerry's passing. My thoughts and prayers are with you at this time. May the good Lord bless and comfort you now. There is a day when we will all see our loved ones again, so till that day, keep the faith, don't quit, and keep on keeping on.

“ I am so sorry to hear about Jerry's death. He was too young to leave us.

My thoughts will be with you throughout the coming days and weeks. I don't remember Jerry very well, but when I think of him, I still remember a cute, tall and thin little boy who was full of life and activity. He certainly stood out among your family of mostly girls children.

I hope that soon you can remember the good times you had with Jerry and be comforted and at peace.

Love,

Jill Kinkade###imported-begin##Jill Kinkade###imported-end##
