“ Bill, I am one of the many, many people online to be greatly moved by your loss. You've been in my thoughts (and yes, prayers) each day. I am very sorry. But I also remember some things you've written about your beliefs and experiences (I reread them sometimes), and I know you can find great comfort there. And we're with you.##imported-begin##Steve ("Stevo Darkly" from H&R)##imported-end##

“ I have not prayed in years, but tonight I said this one out loud and in an empty room:

"Almighty God, look on this your servant, lying in great weakness, and comfort him with the promise of life everlasting, given in the resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen."

If you cannot find it, may Peace find you.

“ Jessica was a good friend and student client whom I counseled for several years at North Elementary School. This girl was unpretentious and liked by virtually all of her classmates and teachers. She always had a friendly smile and spoke to everyone she met. She loved her family- her mom, Bill, her sister and her grandfather. I never heard her say an unkind word about anyone. I can also say that I never heard anyone say an unkind word about her. She will be sorely missed by all.
She made by day a better day and the world a better place to live in, when she spoke to me on a daily basis during the school year. In these days of social conflict this girl never had conflicts with her classmates. I will always remember her caring smile and friendly words as we talked about the the school, her family and her home. She was one of a kind who will never be replaced. I will remember her forever.
Thanks for letting her be part of my life.

“ Lord bless you and comfort you. I used to attend Grace Harvest and remember the family. I also worked a short time @ North and remember her very well, she was always so happy, and would play with everyone. It didn't matter what their ages were, she seemed to be a friend to everyone. Gods, grace, peace, and love to you. Belinda##imported-begin##Belinda Cavazos Michael##imported-end##
