“ I am so glad jay and i and several of his family were able to visit and pull out the guitar and sing some of the ole songs form way back when during jay's 40th MLHS Class reunion weekend. li was always pleased to be able to say that Jay had requested me to be a singer in his group.. "That Rubber Band" in 1968. I ended up joining Jody Milward's band, The Handcart Company with Ron Hatley, Bob Goodrich and Tony Milward. But Jay's musical talent and wicked smart wit were a fun inspiration to us all. I might add that none of us fully appreciated the Alligator nor the Dirty Dog dance until we had witnessed Jay at his best on the dance floor in the cafeteria during a post game dance that "The Stop Signs" were playing for. After I returned from my Franco-Suisse mission I sang in a college group with Mark and I admired Zonda from afar. She stupefied us all with her beauty. God bless all of you Chapmans... your friend from forever.. David Miles Oman##imported-begin##david Miles Oman##imported-end##

“ J., Francis, and family,

I'm so sorry to hear of "little J.'s" passing. He, and your family were always like family to us even though we lost track of each other over the years. J. is a big part of my childhood memories. I have a picture of when we were both very little and I was trying to give him a kiss. He had a terrible frown on his face and was trying to get away. I am sorry to have missed the memorial service; I just found out tonight that it was held this morning. My thoughts and prayers are with you and all of the Chapman family during this sorrowful time. “ Chappy was such a bright light, class clown, and my friend throughout our school years. I have often wondered about J, as we fell out of contact many years ago. I will always have a spot in my heart for J. Many were the time I let him look over my shoulder to pass a test. I remember wondering how such a bright boy could have so much trouble with reading, that was in the days before any of us know about dislexia. I wish Jay could have had a better chance. God gave him many talents, a huge heart and perhaps a learning clitch so he wouldn't be perfect and sail through life without spirit building challenges. My heart goes out to all of you that have been left behind. May the Great Spirit of love comfory you.
