“ My friend Fred has been at Lakeridge for the last 6 or 7 months. I try to visit a couple of times a week. For it is not a social person or a conversation list so I try to make my visits during a meal time where I was pleased to meet your husband /dad, Joe. I look forward to my visit with him and had some good conversations. He always seemed appreciative and sincere. He died the night before a morning I visited Fred. I'll miss him as I'm sure you do. May God Rest his soul in peace. Mike ahmann

“ I have a friend, Fred at Lake Ridge nursing home who I visit once or twice a week during the last few months. Fred is not social person or a conversationalist so I tried to make my visits during a meal time where I'm introduce myself to your husband/ dad, Joe. I began looking forward to my visits with him and he always seems so appreciative and sincere. He died the night before the morning I visited Fred. I miss him, I'm sure you do too he was a very nice man
