January 27, 1961 - May 7, 2020

Joetta Ortiz

January 27, 1961 – May 7, 2020

On May 7, 2020 Joetta Ortiz, 59, went into the loving arms of the Lord surrounded by her husband, her 3 daughters and 2 grandchildren. Joetta was born on January 27, 1961 to Marion Hutchcroft and Helen Heicksen in Wenatchee, WA. She was the youngest of 5 children.

She married Ino Ortiz on October 12, 1978 in Ephrata, WA. They lived in Moses Lake, WA for their first year of marriage, then they moved to Warden, WA where they raised their 3 daughters Monica Isensee (Vince), Heather Klitzke (Robert) and Jennifer Hone (CJ).

She was always a hard worker, working long hours to help support her family. After her daughters graduated high school, they moved back to Moses Lake where she continued working as a lab technician at Joyson (Takata). She worked there for over 20 years and found joy in the coworkers she got to work beside. She made some very close friends while working there that she truly loved and spoke highly of. She was someone who became good friends with everyone she came in contact with. She will be missed by many for her contagious smile and her compassion.

Some of her most joyous moments were camping with her husband and 2 pugs, boating with her family soaking up the sun, or just sitting on her patio in the backyard listening to music. When the sun is not out, she absolutely loved her Seahawks. Every Sunday, you could find her watching football. The Sundays she wasn't watching football all day, she was in Seattle at a Seahawks game.

Surviving her are her husband and children, grandchildren Makenna Klitzke and Cody Isensee, sister Connie Cooper (David), brother Jerry Hutchcroft (Donna), mother-in-law Idolina Ortiz, sister-in-laws Rafaela MacDonald (Doug), Irasema Elizalde (Joe) and Gracie Melby (Doug), brother-in-laws Joel Ortiz, Jorge Ortiz (Debbie) and Eli Ortiz (Joy), her pug Shamika, and many cousins, nieces and nephews. She is preceded in death by mother Helen Hutchcroft, father Marion Hutchcroft, brother Don Hutchcroft, brother Kevin Hutchcroft, father-in-law Inocencio Ortiz Jr., sister-in-law Glenda Ortiz, and her pug Shatzi.-

“ I will miss our talks on the phone. I remember when Kevin was at work she would come over to the house and spend time with me. We would put my 2 kids in the double stroller and walk to town. This was before she was married. She was not only my sister-in-law but my best friend in Washington. She was always easier to talk to than anyone I know. I love you and miss you.

“ Oh Joetta you will be missed dearly. I will miss all the hugs at the time clock and the text messages with the emojis and asking me if I was watching the game and how many beers you were down because the Seahawks were stressing you out. The conversations we had at work over the years you were a second momma to me and I will never forget you. I love you Joetta you will be missed so much. Until we meet again. ❤️ 😞

“ Joetta always had smiles and a cheery attitude even when we were over worked and tired. She loved her family, her pugs and her Seahawks to no end. I'll miss her laugh, her contagious smile and when she would stop to tell me something and then say "you know?" Forever in my heart, Jo! 💕

“ You to miss you Joetta! Seeing your smile, talking or messaging you just to nag about our days, or sending funny Bitmoji's or GIF. You were always someone I could turn to for sure. I look back at all the great times we had and I'll hold them close. Our lunch dates on weekends when u weren't even working but would drive out to take me lunch 😍 we would eat and talk. Our Friday mornings even when I wasn't working the same shift you would make sure to call me so I could hear a little of your old school Friday and we could jam out together. Me reminding you how old you are but you always showing me how full of life you were. I love you, and I miss you. But I know you up there with your bubbly beer 🍺 looking over us. I find comfort in knowing you are at peace and with your momma oh how I know you loved her dearly. Til we meet again, friend.
