

Johnathon Clark

April 12, 1982 - April 22, 2009

Johnathon Walter Clark passed away on April 22, 2009 at his home.

John was born on April 12, 1982 in Olympia, Washington to Sandy Clark and James Randall.

John and his family moved to Moses Lake, Washington in 1985.

He is survived by his wife Jessica Clark; his twin boys Johnathon Walter Clark and James Edward Clark; his mother Sandy Clark; his father James Randall; and his younger brothers Kenny Randall and Joe Randall.

John loved many things including drawing, writing poetry, classic rock music, studying guns, and barbecuing with his family. John was currently attending college to become a school teacher. John loved to learn and became an expert in all his interests and wanted to teach that to his children.

John and the love of his life Jessica were married on March 25, 2007 in Reno, Nevada. They promised to renew their vows each year in a new state. On March 25, 2008 John and Jessica renewed their vows in Moses Lake, Washington. Directly after the ceremony they announced that they were expecting. About a month later they discovered they were going to have twins. John became a proud parent on September 30, 2008. John devoted his life to his family. He held a very special bond with his brothers and mother. John would do anything at his own sacrifice for his family; their needs became before his own.

John, we love you "SO MUCH"!
