“ Jon.. You were always one of the true powerful personalities that came out of Riche Court. The enforcer with flying elbows on the court and Rooster off the court. We always enjoyed you as a patient because you made us laugh and changed the atmosphere of the clinic in a good way. I feel lucky to have known you. Rest In peace my old friend.

“ I was blessed by having a wonderful working relationship with Jon over the past 10 years. I had weekly visits that always ended with a trip to a mexican food restaurant, either in Moses Lake or Othello. Chile Rellenos was a dish he always ordered, something I will always remember. I never considered Jon to be a salesman...he was a partner. I didn't have to worry about my packaging supplies...it was always taken care of...perfectly. Even when we asked for what normally would have been impossible, he made it happen.

His love of the Zags was contagious...his gifting of seats for the games will be missed by all who enjoyed the experience of college basketball in the kennel.

Rooster...I miss you more than words can describe...there is a void that isn't easily filled, if ever. Your time spent with us was priceless.

Steve, and the team at Washington Potato.

“ Jon was someone who helped me grow my love of tennis. He would pick me up and drop me off so that we could get on court to practice. He wanted me to succeed and helped make it possible. Even through his knee pain he would put on his braces and would play as long as he could. I still remember the day I beat him for the first time and he was so overjoyed to see my progress.

Tiena, I'm deeply saddened by your loss but thank you for allowing Jon to have such an impact in my life. Both of you helped and supported me and are cherished by me deeply. He will be greatly missed.

“ Patrick, with a mother who's delightfully fun, very caring and generous, and a father (as I now know from reading his obituary) who had a full and meaningful life, it's no wonder you were such a great fourth grader. Please accept my condolences upon his recent death. Louis Logan

“ Tina and family-we were so sad to learn of Jon 's passing. Jon, being so passionate about tennis, was willing to teach our youngest, Connor, the basics of tennis and fueled his passion for tennis that still lives in him today. We were so grateful to Jon for being willing to take the time to teach a young kid who fell in love with tennis and thought that Jon was the best. Connor loved the time they spent on the court together. Bless you Jon for having such an impact on our son's life-we will always remember you and your positivity, encouragement and kindness-you made a difference and your legacy lives on every time Connor picks up a racquet to play in his men's league and with his own children.

“ So sorry to hear about the loss of Jon.
I remember him playing basketball with my oldest brother Steve, Bear Davis. Jon was a year older. But there's many times that Jon came to our house for the routine basketball tournaments. Always polite. Very respected. Too young to leave us, but can join my brother who left us in '87 at 33 yrs old. Fishing and hoops on the agenda. Rip Jon.

“ I first met Jon over 60 years ago in a pre-Little League baseball group and we remained friends, opinionated sports fanatics, and occasional tennis opponents through our high school years. After high school we went our separate ways, meeting again at high school reunions where we fellow alumni again had the chance to enjoy Jon's HUGE personality.

RIP Rooster!

“ I first met Jon in a pre-Little League baseball group and remained friends, opinionated sports fans, and occasional tennis opponents through high school. After HS we went separate ways and lost touch except for the occasional reunion. I will always remember Jon's HUGE personality and at the reunions he was always the same guy as he was in our youth.

RIP Rooster!
