

Jon Gallaway

December 24, 1955 - July 29, 2018

Jon L. Gallaway, 62, Moses Lake resident passed away on Sunday, July 29, 2018 at his home.

Jon was born on December 24, 1955 to Lewis G. and Dorothy L. Gallaway in Odessa, Washington. He had a true passion for music and played the drums in bands along with his parents and often played at the Moses Lake Senior Center. A mechanic by trade, Jon owned and ran Lakeside Repairs & Sales for many years.

He loved to go boating and had a huge heart. He will be greatly missed.

Jon is survived by his 2 daughters, Jonelle Gallaway and BriAnne Coleman.

“ For Jonelle & Bri Anne,

All of us here at Columbia Basin Cancer Foundation were so very sorry to hear that your dad has passed away.....He fought his battle with so much courage! I hope it is some comfort to you that now he doesn't have to struggle or suffer anymore, but can be free now. Jonelle, I know you did all you could to take care of him. Sending along lots of hugs for you! We are keeping you & all of your family in our thoughts & prayers!

“ A super cool brother-in-law and friend he was a great mechanic and car painter. Jon did work on my Mustang 30 years ago which is still holding up today. He was also a kick-ass drummer with a killer smile, and how the women in his life could resist his dimples I don't know. I assume they couldn't...Jon was a warm and caring person and one of my favorite people ever.

“ Jonelle and BriAnne, I am so sorry for your loss. I remember your Dad's love of music, Datsun Z cars, and you girls. I knew your Mom and Dad well when you were both very little--and always think of those times with a smile and fond memories of lots of laughter. I wish you peace, comfort, and many great memories in the coming days.
