

Jose Juan Montemayor

February 22, 2026

Jose Juan Montemayor, 67, lovingly known to family and friends as Juan, was a beloved husband, father, and grandfather who passed away peacefully after a short battle with cancer. He was born in Mexico and later made his home in Washington State, where he built a life centered on family, hard work, and the values he carried with him throughout his journey.

Juan was a devoted husband to his wife, Irma Montemayor, with whom he shared a life of love, commitment, and partnership. He was a proud and caring father to his daughter, Rebecca Montemayor, and his son, Michael Montemayor. He was also a cherished grandfather to his three grandchildren, Madison, Leilani, and Addilyn, who brought him immense joy and pride.

Juan spent many years working in agriculture before following his lifelong dream of opening his own mechanic shop. He enjoyed working alongside his son Michael, where they shared jokes and created lifelong memories together. They both enjoyed building cars and racing together, sharing a passion that strengthened their bond.

Juan was known for his strong work ethic, generous spirit, and deep love for the outdoors. He enjoyed hunting and fishing, finding peace and happiness in nature. He also enjoyed traveling to Mexico, where he remained closely connected to his roots and heritage. He had a passion for mechanic work and was always willing to lend a helping hand to anyone in need. He will be remembered for his kindness, dedication to his family, and the lasting impact he made on all who knew him.

In his later years, Juan embraced retirement by traveling and spending countless cherished hours with his grandchildren, whom he loved deeply and who brought great joy to his life.

Juan's legacy lives on through the love he shared, the lessons he taught, and the memories his family and friends will forever cherish. He will be deeply missed and lovingly remembered.

Arrangements are under the care of Kayser's Chapel of Memories.
