“ Dear Family of Jodi,
I so enjoyed this bright, vivacious, energy filled woman, at our church functions. She always had a smile and stopped to talk each time we met. I will miss her and am certain you, her family, will too. I know we will meet again in Heaven because I know Jesus was glad to welcome her there.
My condolences to each of you. I am unable to attend her service because of conflicting work hours.
Love in Christ, Jeannette Whaley

“ One of my most favorite "other mothers". She was so fun and loving and brought so much delight and laughter to our household. I remember her often chasing brother Pat around with a yardstick trying to catch him and beat him and ended up with all of us on the floor laughing...everytime. She was a jewel and lived a great life. She will be greatly missed by all. She leaves behind many great memories! May she rest in Peace and rejoice in her reunion with your dad and brother. God Bless Jodi!

“ I loved viewing the photos shared here and went through them several times. Jodi was always such a special person who touched so many people with her playfulness and joy for living. She also loved to clean homes. I was lucky to get her come to our place. She was fastidious in her work and took pride in finding the latest and best cleaning techniques. We worked side by side which was so much fun. I always prepared lunch for her which we enjoyed together. She was a delightful person and I am honored to have met her and to have shared precious moments with her. She loved her family, friends, animals and maintained a beautiful lawn and flower garden. She inspired me! She leaves fond memories for many in her wake.

“ Shirley and Patty, I was so saddened to hear of your mother's passing. Although, I am sure there is sorrow at the end of her struggle, I hope the freedom her soul has now provides some comfort for you, as she is now with the Lord. I was just 6 years old when mom and dad moved us in as Aunt Jody and Uncle Ervin's neighbors and because of their love I never really missed my past, I had all the love and attention that any little girl could want in the present. Even after she was no longer my neighbor I remember days spent with your mom well into my teenage years, we would do yard work, house work, and talk about memories of your dad and the Horn boys. I never felt less than magnificent when I was in her presence. From the moment I would walk through the door, I was met with at least 5-10 wet kisses and a hug that seemed then to last for an eternity, but left me feeling so warmed and loved. When I would leave, I departed in the same way; showered with many muah, muah, muah, smack, smack, smack and then the question... "You know Aunt Jody loves you right?" I couldn't help but want to bottle that up and carry it with me. I guess I did because I do the very same thing to my kids at times who all have met your mom, and although they only spent just moments with her, they know exactly who I talk about when I mention her. She did the very same to them. God she knew how to love!!! I feel so blessed to have known that love. This world needs more of the love out loud she gave. I will miss her. God bless you all in this time.

“ I want to send my condolences to Shirley and Patty on the loss of their mom. Jodi was a character, accurately described as a spitfire. Many of my childhood memories are centered around my favorite Uncle Ervin, Aunt Jodi and Patty and Shirley. Their family was always so good to our family, especially after my Dad died I will always remember Aunt Jodi with great fondness and all the fun family times we shared at her home! My heart aches for you Shirley, what a truly wonderful and devoted daughter you have been, so admirable. Take care

“ Jodi was a neighbor of my Mother in Law's every time I saw her she had a smile on her face. She was a very sweet lady always asking me about her, even after she was gone she would tell me stories of her and the neighbor ladies getting together. Enjoy the memories

“ Very sad to hear of Aunt Jodi's passing yesterday...What a spitfire, and spirit! I can only hope that I keep the same zest for life that she showed! No more pain now, though I am sure Heaven just became a lot livelier place with her presence! May the peace and comfort of Our Lord be with her entire family at this trying time! God bless....
