

Joyce Phyllis Abraham

August 7, 1943 - August 8, 2025

Joyce Phyllis Abraham died August 8, 2025 at the age of 82. She was born August 7, 1943 in Lancaster, California and was raised in Portland, OR., where she met her husband Harlan Abraham and married December 4, 1962. They lived in California while Harlan served in the Navy then moved to Washington and raised their family in Ravensdale. After her husband retired from Boeing, they were looking for that a small town feel and less traffic. Bringing them to Moses Lake, WA in 1999. Joyce retired from Ephrata School District.

Joyce was a talented quilter, traveling to several different Quilt Shows across the states, with members of her Quilting group. She and her husband enjoyed taking cruises during retirement and enjoying the simple life. One of her most memorable travels was to Ireland, where she found her Great, great grandparents apartment building still standing. She was very proud of her Irish heritage.

Joyce is survived by her son, Lloyd Abraham and daughter-in-law, Darla Abraham of Auburn, WA. daughter, Corie Abraham-Sealey of Moses Lake. Eight grandchildren, Edward, Matthew, Jessica, Colton, Shalee, Casey, Laynie, and Alex. Eight great grandchildren, Lucas, Lindsey, Taylor, Isaiah, Sawyer, Declan, Adeline, and Lilith.
