“ Juan Garcia, You taught me many things about life growing older you showed me who was really there for me,you showed me the real meaning of family you were my best friend,and my tio, the only one I felt I could reach out to,the only bond that I had that was strong,the one I looked up to growing up, I know your not gone forever and one day we will see eachother again ,I constantly dream about you in your old apartment and you had a cast talking to me I don't remeber what we would say but remember we were talking about what happend and I was hugging you and you saying it's fine and that your here. I miss you so much I feel completely empty now that your gone. I love you tio ❤️🕊️

“ I didn't personally know Juan but as a regular customer at the grocery pick up I appreciated him and the job he did. He always greeted me nicely, loaded my groceries with care, and was always in a happy mood. He took pride in his job. Juan will be missed and forever remembered as my favorite grocery pick up employee.
