She was born in Warden on February 25th, 1954, to Aulton Clyde Jack and Evelyn Hardy. She married her first late husband and high school sweetheart Albert (Abbie) Reitz in 1972. They lived in Warden and had their daughter, Stephanie, in '72. She married her second late husband Timothy J. Sullivan in 1978 and shortly after had their two daughters Crystal and Heather. She worked many jobs for the community she loved so dearly. Her favorite of them all was her time spent working for The Corral. She enjoyed spending her golden years with her family teaching her granddaughters to bake, watching scary movies with her grandson, and going bargain shopping with her daughters. You could always count on Grandma to bring Oriental salad to any gathering or having a large plate of her famous Pfeffernusse cookies on the table during the holidays. Julie lived her whole life in the community of Warden, was known as Grandma Julie to everyone and she loved sitting on her front porch waving to everyone who would drive by and honk. You were always welcome at grandma's house, and she would always have a cold beverage in the fridge for you.

She was at peace with God, her Heavenly Father, and will be greatly missed by all her family, friends, and the community she gave her heart and soul to. In her last days Julie was surrounded by her family celebrating her Grandsons birthday and taking charge telling everyone how to set up her Christmas decorations, her most favorite time of the year. Services will be held at Warden Community Church on Monday the 28th of November at 1:00pm. There is a GoFundMe set in Julie's name to help the family with funeral and burial costs and any other expenses from this immense loss.
