

Julie Jo Frahm

September 28, 1958 - July 12, 2014

Julie Jo Frahm (Rainsberry - Mattson), age 55, passed away peacefully in her sleep on the morning of July 12th, 2014. A celebration of her life (not a funeral so please no black) will be held for her on August 23rd, 2014 at 2pm at the Oroville Free Methodist Church in Oroville, WA. Please sign the online guestbook or leave a note for the family at www.kayserschapel.com

Arrangements are in care of Kayser's Chapel & Crematory.

Julie proudly knew where and what her heaven was and who was there waiting there for her. She enjoyed all types of music and spent many hours of her life reading. Julie was a daughter, an aunt, a sister, a retired special education teacher, and a loving wife, but a lot her heart belonged to her children and grandchildren. Julie was like a second mom to countless young adults and always had an open heart and home to those who needed it the most. Julie often said the only thing better than having kids was having grand babies.

She leaves behind her husband: Fred, her children: Michelle, Laura, David, Gregory, Roberta, and James Jr. and her beloved grandchildren: Ryan, Caylee, William, Alexander, Jaxson, and Millie.

“Julie and I spent many a day and night in high school getting into trouble or trying to avoid trouble. Many memories came flooding back when I saw that she had passed, even though we have not had contact since those days. Two of my favorite memories are traveling down to the Salmon River down the old White Bird hill in my Mustang playing "Peek-A-Boo -- Gotcha" around the bends of the hill (you had to have been there) and coming home late to her parent's house one night - we were in her room listening to the radio and hoping to win a record (vinyl LP) by guessing the name of the artist that the DJ played. Well, Rick Derringer was the artist and we called in and won his album. We passed that album back and forth for quite some time, and I think about Julie every time I hear that song "Rock and Roll Hoochie Koo" played on the radio when I am listening to the "oldies." I wish that Julie and I had stayed in touch. She was fiercely loyal to her friends and family back then and it appears she had so much room in her heart with love for many more. She was such a wonderful person and was such a "kick-in-the-pants" friend back in the days. She was a little bit of a rebel then and I can only imagine that at least a part of her stayed that way. It is ironic that Nancy (another close high school friend) and Julie passed away just within a few months of each other.

My condolences to Julie's family. I am sure she will be missed by many.

Brad, I haven't had contact with you either since then and hope you are doing well.

Rest in Peace Julie. You are in my thoughts.

“ I am so very grateful to have worked with Julie. She brought a lot to our classroom. The older kids still mention her often. I have many memories of Julie's wicked fun humor that made us laugh even when instead we wanted to have cried. She was genuine and generous almost to a fault. But I always admired her for that. Fred and you kids have to know she was very proud of you all even through the hard times. I am very sorry for all of your lose. She leaves behind a strong legacy. My condolences to your family.

“ So sorry to hear about Julie's passing. I'm very grateful for her generous spirit, and her ability to share unconditional love. She played a very supportive part in my son Aaron's life, and for that I'm very grateful. Thank you Julie :)

Sending love and hugs to all her family and friends during this time.
