“ I never got to meet you . Plans where in the works to have lunch together. The love in Brenda’s voice and eyes when she talked about you where so wonderful. I know you are in heaven watching over her . And I know one day you will be together again . For now I will do every thing I can to make her strong and in peace until then .

“ 45 yrs of memories.. there was laughter, fights, tears, I love you, I hate you.. playing long run.. short run in the front yard. Broken fingers, bloody noses, busted lips..3 ears, 4 eyes.. to begging her not to go off to collage.
Yrs went by friendship was born. Healing each other's heart aches over coffee.. long distance call that lasted hours.. knowing no matter what we had each other .. loved each other and had a bond that miles and yrs never bent. She was my sister and my best friend.
See you in the blink of an eye Kel.

“ I'm sooo sorry to hear of Kelly's passing. I'll miss her quiet ways, but when she spoke, it was usually something sarcastic and hysterical. We've had many good times. .. I'll miss her. Brenda you are in my thoughts and prayers. Love you both..

“ Kelly was more than a friend, she was family. I only knew her for a short time but we had become confidants. She lived with me and Tammi for over a year and during that time we had many late night (or earlier morning) coffee meetings. During those times we shared life's best and worst moments but mostly we just talked and laughed. I will miss her great smile, her ability to laugh and sometimes just her ability to bring quietness and solitude to our lives. Like I said.... she was family. Till we we again my friend!

“ Being able to be close to Kelly has brought me to a closer awareness of my higher power. She was starting to come to an understanding of her own. I was always so happy to bounce new concepts around. Amazing how people change us everyday. I'm glad I have come to a place where I have an open heart and mind. I'm very thankful for Kelly. ”

“ Kelly and I were more than cousins. We were best friend when we were young. We listened to music played outside, formed secret clubs had picnic lunches, went swimming and took family vacations together. I will cherish those memories. Rest in peace dear cousin.
