“ I lost track of Lance during my tour of duty in the USAF and found myself out of the country for two years stationed in the Philippines. I met him in 1978 when I started messing around with the CB Radio someone gave me and became good friends with his brothers as well. I worked with him at MCS for a time as well. I decided to look him up and found that he had passed just today. Rest in peace friend. ”

“ Lance you grew on me like a warm coat in winter. I will forever miss you and our conversations. Life will not be the same, you were a force for good and always had encouraging words no matter what you were going through. Sing a song for me my friend. Love you forever!
