

Larry D. Jackson

January 22, 1940 - May 29, 2010

Larry Dean Jackson 70, passed away at Central Washington Hospital in Wenatchee on Saturday, May 29, 2010. He was born on January 22, 1940 in Spokane, Washington to William and Thelma Jackson. He served a total of 28 years in the Marines and Air Force. After his service in the military he worked at ASIMI (now REC Silicone) and later in the sporting goods department of Walmart. He loved to go fishing, hunting and was fascinated with old cars. He was a very loving, caring and patient husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather and friend to all indeed! He always tried to teach his children and support them in all sports and any other endeavors they encountered through his kind and gentle ways. He was proud of all of his children's accomplishments.

Larry was preceded in death by his parents and one sister. He is survived by his wife of 24 years- Marilyn Jackson, son's Dan Jackson of Paragould, Arkansas, Donnie (Joyce) Jackson of Spokane and daughter Melissa Jackson of Moses Lake and (3) step-children; Ray (Jo) Bunney of Spokane, Deanna (Kirk) Newkirk and Darren Bunney, of Moses Lake, sister Jeanette Moss and brother Dick (Karen) Jackson, all of Spokane. (10) Grand children and (4) great-grand children.

Funeral services will be held on Tuesday, June 8th, 2010 at 10a.m. in Kayser's Chapel and Crematory. Interment will follow at Guardian Angels Cemetery 2595 Rd. "L" N.E., Moses Lake.
