Lee was a great person with a good heart. I was lucky to meet him in 1995 when he was the president of Coast Energy Management. Lee hired me to work and I stayed 7 years working for his company. He was very respectful and polite. And very dedicated. He didn't like missing days of work. That was my first ever job and I have always remembered Lee along the years as a good person that reminds me my father. In my memory I kept Dan Bach, the CEO and Lee's friend spending time together Definitely I won't forget him the rest of my life.
