“ The world has lost a very dear, sweet, wonderful lady and Heaven has gained another angel!! My family has been part of the Page family for 46 years and we shared so many great memories. We are not blood relation, but relation through our Christian friendship. My children considered Lois and JD as grandparents. What a blessing to have been able to hear Lois sing many, many times, too. I know all of her family and friends will miss her terribly, but will be so happy to know that she is at long last with JD again.
