Lora was born on June 17, 1917 in Seattle, Washington, daughter of the late Louis and Lottie Gross. She was married to Leon Long in 1949 and they made their home in Bremerton. She worked at Puget Sound Naval Shipyard until her retirement in 1969. After retirement she and Leon moved to Moses Lake where they had a small farm. She enjoyed bowling, dancing, gardening, knitting and crocheting. Besides her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, Leon, one brother and one sister.

“ I met Lora when she and Leon bowled with my parents on a senior league in Moses Lake years ago. Later after Leon's and my father's passing, Lora, my Mom and a few other "bowling widows" had a weekly luncheon gathering. Occasionally, I was lucky enough to be included in the group. What a remarkable group of women! They shared lively conversation, hearty laughter, garden produce, and warm fellowship. Lunch was just an excuse to get together. Lettie, Kitty, and now Lora are gone, and I'd like to think they're together again . . . laughing and visiting with one another.

I extend my sincere sympathy to her family. I'm sure you'll miss that smile and her twinkling eyes. She was a great lady.
