

Loris Sidwell

April 3, 1932 - November 11, 2022

Loris Sidwell was born April 3, 1932 in Richmond, Cach County, Utah. She married Ervin Holger Sidwell at Shelley, Bingham County, Idaho on February 22, 1950. Ervin passed away October 10, 1995 in Grand Forks, B.C. Canada. She passed away November 11, 2022 in Moses Lake, Washington.

Loris attended grade school in Richmond, Utah and Riverside School in Idaho Falls, Idaho and also Junior High and High School in Idaho Falls, Idaho.

Loris worked for Modern Café and Rio Theatre when young, before marrying. As well as babysitting for several people.

After marrying she and her husband lived in Shelley, Idaho until 1958 then moved to Gang Ranch located in B.C. Canada. They were there until 1975 then moved to Walhachin in B.C. and remained in agriculture until they moved to Grand Forks B.C., where they were involved in rock quarry work. Ervin passes away in 1995, after Loris went to White Horse Yukon Territory and spent 5 years there. She left in 2005 and went to Powell Rivers, B.C., always thought she would love to live by the ocean but did not like the climate. It rained almost every day.

She worked in the LDS church in many capacities, junior Sunday school primarily. She did Sunday school at the ranch as they were a long way from a church.

Son Gary was baptized at the ranch in a portable font, also her mother in law was baptized on her back porch in a portable font in January.

She also served as 1st counselor in Relief Society and Compassion Services

Leader and visiting teacher for many years. Loris was Relief Society President at Powell River for about a year.

Her hobbies were crocheting and metal work, making chairs and wall décor from tin cans. She like to read and liked history. She cooked on large capacities, prepared food for weddings of her children when required, Carl, Gary, and Gaye's weddings.

She made many friends over the years. She moved to Moses Lake in 2008. She is survived by her children; Joanne Armstrong (Gary), Bill Sidwell, Gary Sidwell (Lorraine), Carl Sidwell (Terry), Kirk Sidwell, Gaye Sidwell, and one half-brother, Randy Burbank of Twin Falls, Idaho.

She is preceded in death by 2 sisters, 3 brothers, 2 half-brothers and 1 half-sister.

Tribute Wall

DW

“ Dear Sidwell Family,
Both Sherry and I wish to express our sincere condolences for the loss of Loris, she was a great woman and we are grateful for her friendship and service in the community. She will be greatly missed.
Sincerely, Dane & Sherry Watkins

Dane H. Watkins - December 05, 2022 at 02:01 PM

JG

“ Janet Gonzales lit a candle in memory of Loris Sidwell

Janet Gonzales - November 17, 2022 at 04:36 PM

WS

“ Wendy S. lit a candle in memory of Loris Sidwell

Wendy S. - November 16, 2022 at 08:33 PM

AR

“ I am so sorry to read of Loris's passing. I remember her and her kindness. She was a very sweet lady and will be missed. I knew her from the clinic where I worked years ago and always enjoyed our visits. I will see you on the other side.
My deepest sympathy to her family. Alice Rendon.

Alice Rendon - November 16, 2022 at 07:26 PM

WE

Such a very lovely lady. I am truly blessed to have gotten to know her and her family. My heart breaks for all who knew her. My deepest sympathy to the Sidwell Family

Wendy Erickson - November 21, 2022 at 03:54 PM