

Lucy G. Ramirez

March 15, 1929 - April 5, 2010

On Monday, April 5th, 2010 Lucy G. Ramirez, 81, a long time resident of Moses Lake, in her home surrounded with love by family and friends, went to her Father in Heaven.

Lucy was born March 15th, 1929 in Torrington, Wyoming to Agapito and Vicenta Gomez. She first moved to Moses Lake in 1949 where she worked as a migrant worker. She met her husband Rodolfo C. Ramirez during a 4th of July celebration in 1952 and was wed on October 17th, 1953.

Lucy lived a wonderful and full life; faith, family and friends were very dear to her heart. She spent much of her time tending to her bountiful garden & beautiful flowers in the summer and fall and enjoyed her crocheting and sewing during the winter.

“ Grandma Lucy was the best grandma I could ever ask for. She gave me wisdom and helped me raise my girls to be respectful and polite. We are going to miss our grandma. There will never be any one who could replace her or fill her shoes. She had a lot of love for so many people. Prayer was always the answer! I've been doing a lot of that lately. My four year old (Ali) turned to me today and said with a frown "I miss grandma" I can say for myself and the rest of our amazing family.... we all miss her already. Rest in Peace beautiful grandma Lucy! We love you so much.##imported-begin##Brian, Adriana, Alexis and Alixandria##imported-end##

“ You guys are so lucky to have lived a life of true goodness with your momma, she was absolutely rad!!. There were so many times we would get together at the farm for "fiesta".....tia and her clan were always there....just like the mail service...through rain, snow....always a warm and welcome sight...her relationship with my father was unreal....being the oldest of the girls and the boys, they had so many shoes to fill....together now, they see what we only hope someday we will see....we were truly blessed by her, tomorrow will be a day of "true fiesta" once more....###imported-begin##John Gomez###imported-end##

“ My Cousins, the Lord abundantly blessed my Tia Lucy with so many gifts that would take pages of emails. Her salvation for each of us was her peace to know that we were! In these past few days I have powerful strength of love, kindness, tears and words of encouragement flow in our family. Remember, when Jesus leaving us He said that was going to send, "The Comfortor" He did and to REMEMBER Him. Know that our Spirit lives eternally in Heaven with Him. Thank you for giving me and my children the wonderful opportunity to be with you in this time we were called to be... I love you, my cousins.##imported-begin##Diana (Gomez) Guajardo##imported-end##
