“ This was such a tragedy that should not have happened, Luis was taken much too soon, he will be missed dearly. I was happy to have him as part of my family for the short time that I knew him. His smile was warm and his heart was kind. My heart and prayers go out the Zepeda and Martinez families, along with all others that have been mourned by this loss.##imported-begin##Chanda Mckinney##imported-end##

“ Luis My wife Veronica and I First met you when we went to W.A. Me and you talked for a while and found out we had a lot of things in common. We enjoyed your hospitality. Thank you for making us feel right at home. I truly believe I will see you In heaven and we will get to do the things we talked about.
I love you. Your stepbrother Tony.##imported-begin##Jesus Antonio Romero##imported-end##

“ I had the opportunity of being Luis' soccer coach earlier in his life. I always admired his sense of respect for those in need of help or assistance. He carried a contagious smile that was warm and friendly. May the grace of God comfort the Martinez & Zepeda family during these challenging times.##imported-begin##Custodio Valencia##imported-end##

“ *Death is the hardest part of life not for those who have passed but for those who are left behind. They are forced to grasp the concept of leaving this earth to another atmosphere that we call heaven, but they call home.
