

Lyle Joseph Bullinger

September 23, 1966 - January 8, 2020

People come and go so unexpectedly; we sometimes forget that nothing really lasts as long as we hoped they would.

Lyle Joseph Bullinger, 53, of Moses Lake, Washington, succumbed to his fight with ongoing medical issues in the comfort of his own home surrounded by his family on Wednesday, January 8th, 2020.

Lyle is survived by his wife Sarah Bullinger of 25 years, daughters Trece Brown and Taylor Alvarado, parents Lawrence and Kitty Bullinger of Davenport, WA, sister Laurie Miller of Puyallup, WA, loving nieces, nephews and many friends that were considered family. Our Lyle loved being a father, cherished his wife Sarah, loved his sister and he was a wonderful son. Lyle was always a good man and a friend to everyone.

Lyle was born in Mandan, North Dakota on September 23, 1966. He married Sarah July 31st, 1993 in West Richland, WA.

He loved sports, especially football, his favorite team was of course his Seattle Seahawks. He worked as a journeyman welder/fabricator for over 30 years but was forced to give up the career he loved due to his sudden illness. Our Lyle always spent his free time with family, he truly loved the outdoors, camping and spending time on the lake boating. Lyle was an avid golfer, playing with family and friends and in charity tournaments every season. He truly had a lifelong music passion; he was a fan, attending live rock concerts and doing an amazing job singing Karaoke--he always lit up the room.

Lyle was always creative and a gifted craftsman. That good skill showed in his household projects, his work projects or whatever else people needed him for. A special thank you to the family, friends, the hospital in Ireland and Virginia Mason Hospital that supported and helped Lyle during his sudden illness. Service will be held January 17, 2020 at 3:00 pm - Kayser's Chapel, 831 S Pioneer Way, Moses Lake, WA. Reception to follow at the Elks Lodge, 814 N Stratford Rd, Moses Lake, WA. Lyle will be laid to rest at Guarding Angels Cemetery.

“ My memories of Lyle and with Lyle are far to many to identify the 1 to tribute him, I'm not sure if I was the bad influence or he was, but together we always found mischief and shenanigans. Lyle IS and will forever remain one of my closest and dearest friends. We could not see one another in years, and pick up where we had left off, Truly blessed to have known him, and Honored to be able to call him, "Friend" One in a million doesn't come close,, one in a lifetime.'Till we meet again my Brother,, 'Till we meet again

“ Lyle's friendship was a gift that kept on giving. Those we love don't go away, they walk beside us every day. Unseen, unheard, but always near, still loved, still missed and forever dear. May God grant Sarah and family peace, understanding and comfort during this difficult time.
