“ When I first moved to the Basin area in 1979 and began attending Immanuel Lutheran, Lynda was the church secretary. She was so fun and kind and help me fit in. I talked many a problem over with her in the time I attended there---she had a great listening ear! I am sorry to hear of her passing. Praying the Lord greatly comfort her family and friends. She knew me as Donna Toler at that time.

“ I will miss Lynda as no doubt many will. She got me through a lot in difficult times and good times. We, as she said a few times, solved many of the worlds problems out the back door of the church kitchen.

Lynda took my scribbled writing and typed it into a readable format for my essay assignments at Big Bend as I started my journey to a Special Education degree. Without Lynda and a bit of questioning to clarify what I was trying to say and her amazing typing skills I would never have done as well as I did; she helped me show my full potential.

The friendship has lasted over the years and with many miles of separation. It was great when Lynda and Lee were able to travel to New Zealand with my mother several years ago. And recently when Lynda and Lee shared their home and hospitality when mom passed away.

Our daughter Rachel shared that she always thought Lynda was her aunty and did not realise she was not until our recent stay at Trails End.

Go Well and Rest in Peace with your Lord

To me, Lynda was the heart and hands of Immanuel Lutheran Church, when growing up. Her smile and cheerful greeting always made me feel welcome and a part of the family- even when I hadn't been there for years. She was one of my earliest examples of a graceful servanthood. My heart and prayers go out to Lynda's family.

“ When I think of Lynda I am filled with great memories of a bustling church office, her lovely perfume, her encouraging words and capable handling of everything she touched, whether it was business, quilting or matters of the heart. I loved her dearly and regret never having joined her at Lutherhaven. God bless her family, and have peace knowing she is with her savior.

“ To Lee and all the Williams family; We are so sorry to hear that Lynda has passed away. She always had a smile on her face, and compassion in her heart. Lynda was spirited, bright, warm and caring. She was the "Queen", with the friends she quilted with. So talented!!! I had the pleasure of traveling to Ireland and France with her. She was so much fun, and made everyone around her, feel welcome. It was a privilege to know Lynda, during her life on earth. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all. Sincerely, Cathy and Paul

We've all been blessed to have known Lynda. She was a loving friend and we had some uplifting and funny conversations about raising kids. Whenever I saw Lynda these past years, she always had a hug for me and that wonderful shining spirit that just bubbled over. I will miss that.

My children, all of whom are grown, still talk about trips to the farm to see Aunt Lynda and Uncle Lee. Lynda and I would sit at the kitchen table for hours and visit. She always had good advice and was one of the kindest persons I've ever known. My family will miss her very much. Love to Lee and family. Francine Shaw
