

Lynn Talbot

February 8, 1945 - March 5, 2015

Lynn Talbot, long time Warden resident, passed away on March 5th 2015 at Sacred Heart Medical Center in Spokane, Washington. He is survived by his loving wife, Maria Antonia Talbot, his two sons, Alan and Gregory Talbot, his daughter in-law, Veronica Talbot, and his two granddaughters, Nastacia and Ahlivia Talbot. His family could not have asked for a better husband, father and/or grandfather. He meant everything to them and was a great teacher in life. Though his time here with us has ended his eternal life with the Lord has just begun. Lynn who is still wanted and will be missed here on earth but through his good works and our memories he will never be forgotten. His family will not be mourning his passing but celebrating the life that they shared with him.

If you knew Lynn or the family you are more than welcome to join the family and friends in a celebration of life at the Warden Assembly of God Church, 416 Oak St. S., Warden, Washington, on the 12th of March 2015. Viewing will begin at 12:30 p.m. and services will be held at 2:00 p.m. Following the service the burial will be at Sunset Memorial Gardens in Warden, Washington. A reception will be held at the church following the burial.

Please sign the online guestbook or leave a note for the family.

“ *Antonia and family--so many years have gone by! We have many happy memories of you living next door to Iva; seeing you at church, watching the boys grow up and become fine young men. God bless and comfort each one. Wish we could be with you tomorrow.
Love and prayers,
Howard and Eunice.*

“ Lynn, my father, was a great man who always tried to put others before himself. I remember I was either 3rd or 4th grade and it was winter time. There was my father outside on the ladder trying to fix something on the roof. I was inside the house waiting for him to finish. While playing inside I remember hearing a loud crash outside so I ran out to see what had happened. Once outside I remember seeing my father on the floor grabbing his wrist and I asked him if he was ok, but if you know my father he was the type of man to hide his pain and not let others see it, so he replied I'm ok. So with that said I asked him if he could make me a tuna sandwich and he did. Then we had to take him to the hospital for a broken wrist. He truly was a great man and a great father.

He will be missed and loved. Till we meet again dad love you.

“ Lynn was a master of the storytelling joke. I always looked forward to the next one that he would share and I always passed them on (although not as artistically). He did the voices of the different characters, my favorite was the parrot closely followed by his Irish brogue. He was one of my favorite customers and I know he will be missed by everyone that knew him. My thoughts and prayers are with you!
