“ To the Janett family: I am Ed and Gertrude{Deceased} Bartlett's Daughter Cynthia Bartlett{Daly}. My mom and dad had the Royal City wrecking yard. I graduated in 1971 from Royal High School and i do remember when Marc was born and and watching him grow up a few years while working for his his parents on the potato digger and going to there house. I am so very sorry for your loss of Marc. It was a total shock to me when I saw his obituary. I will always remember Marc as a handsome young man growing up although i did not know him real well I always read the local papers from royal city and the Columbia Basin Herald and areas and kept up with the local news of all the farming in royal city. My dad Ed Bartlett and myself send our Deepest Sympathy and condolences to all of the family. May God Bless each of you and keep you in his care. Mr. Ed Bartlett and Cynthia Bartlett{Daly} Belen, New Mexico

“ Marc was the first person I met in college, we hit it off immediately. He was always there for his friends, his love of life and generosity were infectious, he always inspired those around him. He was the type of man I would want my daughter to marry, he was that good.

“ I met Marc about 20 years ago... he instantly came across as genuine, selfless and crazy-fun. In that short time I spent around Marc, it was clear his love of family and fun were paramount. I always knew if I ended up in Royal City... I'd have someone I could count on. Rest easy Marc... and hugs and prayers to his family and friends.

1991...the year i met him. he was someone in my life i just clicked with. playing pool after hours til the sun came up, parties at his ccs apartment, the joy. sharing his life as i visited once he went back to royal whenever i drove through. introducing my wife to be to him, cody and allie as the ring bearer and flower girl at our wedding in 2/26/2000. he looked so uncomfortable in his brown suit jacket. his 30th at the lodge, two days after mine. so many times sharing family and times with him and his family.

*i will not miss you, marc, you are not gone. as long as i draw breath, your laugh is alive, your joy will be remembered and cherished. i promise to hold your beer, no matter what hi-jinks you plan. be at peace my friend, and know, despite what i said, i will miss you

“ Dear Janett family,

I can not imagine your pain and the loss you are feeling right now. Please know that my prayers and thoughts are with you all. I am so deeply saddened by the passing of Marc and am grateful that I got to spend time with him at Tammy and Skeeter's wedding. He was sharing with me, among other things, the joy fatherhood has brought him. Marc was such a presence and his absence will be felt deeply. When I think of him I think of a man with the kindest heart I've ever know. I thought back to all the time we'd spent together over the years and couldn't think of a single moment in which Marc wasn't kind to everyone around him. I'll never forget his big smile. Marc, you touched my life and so many others. You will be missed my friend.
