She worked at Carnation/Nestle for many years, retiring in 2001. She was an amazing cook and no one ever left her house hungry. She enjoyed gardening, knitting and traveling with her family. Maria was a longtime member of Our Lady of Fatima church.

“ Grandma Estrada was a sweet soul who radiated with love when you would walk in the room to see her. She was so thankful for company to come and see her and I will never forget her meeting my daughter Lydia for the first time. I am thankful for the moments we shared together and will treasure those for the rest of my life. She is in peace and that we are thankful for. ”
