

Maria Olga Hickman

October 26, 1926 - December 6, 2019

Maria Olga Hickman was born in Santa Rita, New Mexico on October 26, 1926, to Ambrosio and Francisca Rodriguez. She is survived by her brother Ralph and sisters Helen and Martha.

Olga, as she was known, was preceded in death by her beloved husband Tom, son Sam and sister Grace.

Olga graduated from San Fernando High School in 1945 and from Los Angeles City College with an Associates in Arts on January 13, 1948.

Olga met the love of her life, Thomas J. Hickman, at a USO dance; they were later married on October 4, 1952. They lived in California and Washington due to Tom's job as an Air Traffic Controller. They raised five children: Tommy, Maria, Raul, Sam, and Patrick.

Olga and Tom owned and operated several businesses, rental houses, a twenty-acre apple orchard, and an 87-acre alfalfa farm while working full-time and raising children. Olga worked several jobs: Lockheed Martin, hospital admitting, hospital interpretation, chiropractic receptionist, substitute teacher, shift work at Carnation corporation, and receptionist at

Yakima Mental Health.

Olga was very involved in the Moses Lake Art Club for many years, and had many art shows selling several watercolor and acrylic paintings.

Olga is survived by her children: Tom (Leanne), Maria (Glenn), Raul (Diana), Patrick (Debie);

grandchildren: John, Matt (Brianne), Tina (Gary), Ben (Simeon), Nick, Jessica (Dallas), Rochelle

(Nick); great-grandchildren: Westley, Grant, Logan, Isaac, Faith, Seth, Cameron, Mason, Jared, Gavin, London, and Nixon.

“ If it hadn't been for Olga asking our family on several visits if we would see her son, Dr. Hickman, when our regular chiropractor was behind we would have missed out on many years of knowing a gracious, kind, helpful, always happy and uplifting person and very proud mother.

“ To all our nieces, nephews and extended families. Our memories are filled with so many, many happy moments of Olga. Tom absolutely adored her. She introduced so many " GREAT RECIPES" to our families. Always "happy, eager to help and a true joy to be around. Words cannot begin to express our sadness of her passing. Always know that your entire families are in our thoughts and prayers Aunt Lena, Uncle Chuck and our extended families.

I will always remember her as a very kind and caring individual. Every one who was touched by her was blessed to have known her. A class lady.
