

Marie D. Joanis

August 12, 1946 - October 30, 2011

Marie Dolores Joanis (Zuniga)

Sunrise 08/12/46 Calexico, Ca.- Sunset 10/30/11 Moses Lake, Wa.

After a short but courageous battle, our Mother chose to die with dignity.

Home, holding her favorite, a yellow rose, music playing Mom took her last breath in the arms of her children.

With heavy hearts but also at peace, we know she is with our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Mom always made sure we were safe and warm, never needing a thing. That went for all who entered our home. No one ever left hungry or cold...but rather, full and smiling. Always enough to share our home was a safe haven for all, especially Gods winged and four legged creatures....never strange to find a blind cat, three legged dog, snakes, chickens, rabbits and "Lucky"..the broken winged duck who lived with us for a year...and was house trained. Her animals were never caged.

Mom laughed loud, loved deeply and Heaven knows how she loved to dance....A simple woman, who moved mountains.

...Enjoy the beans and tortillas Jesus....

Our mother was preceded in passing by her father Felipe', her mother Francis, husband William and her two angels, our sister Kelly Ann and granddaughter Isabelle.

She lives on in her children: Manuel, Jesse, Martin (Dana), Santiago, Diane (Brad) and Marina.

Her Grandchildren:

Rhonda, Trina, Cortney, Marlea, Kelie, William, Destinee, Anna-Celia, Adriel, Bryden, Brenden, Vincent, Alex, Bryson, Alex and Skyla.

Great-grandchildren: Devon, Malekhi, Ra'niah, Harmony Grace and Angel Isaiah..

and her siblings: Manuel, Phillip, Mary and Arturo....

Mom never forgot where she came from and also leaves behind a large and beautiful familia in California whom she missed and loved dearly.

Services will be held at 1:00 p.m., Friday, Nov. 4, 2011 at Our Lady of Fatima Catholic Church, 200 N. Dale Rd., Moses Lake.

“ Nana, it's been awhile hasn't it.. I've spent all these years being angry that you've left us. Now that I'm older, I wished I had spent those years remembering you instead of trying to forget. You are my everything. I think about you more and more each day. I'm Pre-Med now.. and transferring to UW soon. I know you'd be proud of me. Life hasn't stopped knocking me, but I haven't stopped fighting either. Harmony is good... I talk to her about you sometimes and show her pictures.. she thinks we look alike.. all I know is that I miss you so much and I'll never forget you. Losing you still feels like yesterday when I think about it... I'm so blessed that god chose you to be my nana. With out you, I don't know what I would've done. I love you muchos, always thinking of you.

“ Hi Nana..
Words cant explain how much I miss you..all of our memories together are the last ones I think about before I go to bed and your smile is the first thing in the morning. I dont know how I've made it this far without you. I love you so much..ill be seeing you..
