

Mark E Clark

December 11, 2025

Mark E. Clark passed away in his Warden, WA home on December 11th 2025.

Mark Clark was born in Anchorage AK to Edith and Don Clark in 1952. He had an adventurous upbringing helping his father run his construction business and learning to pan for gold, which he continued to love throughout his life. Mark's family moved to Mead, WA, and he graduated from Mead HS in 1970. He met his wife of over 50 years, Roxanne, in December of 1974 and they quickly got married just 3 months later. Mark and Roxanne settled in Warden together and had 3 children. Mark never lost his love of Alaska and ran a fish processing plant in Bristol Bay with his friends and family for most of his career. Known as a true jack of all trades, Mark never met a challenge he couldn't solve. He was resourceful, dependable, and always willing to help others.

He is lovingly survived by his wife, Roxanne; his sons, Eric Clark (Brandy West) and Travis Clark (Jody Clark); and his daughter, Angela Clausen. He was a proud grandfather to Madisyn, Maycee, Brock, and Brooklyn Clark, and he held a special place in his heart for his grandson, Clayton Clark, who preceded him in death.

He will be remembered for his kindness, steady presence, and the deep love he had for his family. His stories, laughter, and strength will be missed more than words can express.

Arrangements are under the care of Kayser's Chapel of Memories.

Tribute Wall

FJ

“ I worked closely with Mark at REC and in all those years I knew him to be smart, resourceful with tons of patience, which I often tried, sometimes daily but he never lost his cool. Great guy RIP.

Frank Jones - December 19, 2025 at 12:32 PM

SW

He was my easy going Uncle! Because of him, I have many fun memories I never would have experienced!

Stacie white - February 02 at 01:40 AM