

McKenna B. Fuglie

December 8, 1991 - September 20, 2014

A life of unlimited potential was taken from us Saturday, September 20, when McKenna Brianna Fuglie, 22, daughter of Blair and Phyllis (Dearnaley) Fuglie of Ephrata, WA, died in a car accident near Ephrata.

A celebration of her life will be held Friday, Sept. 26, at 2 p.m. at Quincy First Presbyterian Church, 715 Central Avenue N., Quincy, WA, with Rev. Rich Coghill officiating. Subsequent to organ donation, cremation has taken place, and there will be no visitation prior to the service. Please sign the online guestbook or leave a note for the family at www.kayserschapel.com

Arrangements are in care of Kayser's Chapel & Crematory, Moses Lake.

McKenna was born December 8, 1991, the first daughter of Blair and Phyllis, in Portland, OR. The family lived in Portland and then Meridian, ID, for a short time, before moving to Ephrata in 1999. Here she entered second grade and graduated from Ephrata High School in 2010. She was a member of the Ephrata soccer and volleyball teams and was active in Key Club, which started her on a mission of giving to others. Since high school graduation, McKenna was active in the Ephrata Food Bank. Because of her love of giving, and her dedication to that organization, the family asks that those attending her service Friday bring a non-perishable food item for the food bank instead of flowers to the service. McKenna truly believed everyone had good in them, and she sought to find it through her volunteer efforts. Things she liked: Hawaii, country music, bonfires, tattoos, hiking, Red Bull. Things she didn't like: shopping. "I'd rather sit on the back of a pickup than go shopping.”

Her family left to mourn her passing includes her mom and dad, Blair and Phyllis; her brothers Justin and Drake; her mom’s sister Susan Klock and her husband Jim; her dad’s brothers and sisters Jim, Laurelle, Jay, Jill, Sue and Blake and their spouses, and all her cousins. She also leaves the love of her life, Eddie Hubbard, and her beloved dog Charlee.

Those she will be joining in Heaven include her grandparents, Dr. O.J. and Phyllis Fuglie and Ralph and Betty Dearnaley, and her aunt, Phyllis’ sister Lisa Claunch.

Besides a nonperishable food item, those attending the service are asked to bring any pictures they have of themselves with McKenna for a special display at the church.

Go placidly, McKenna. You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees and the stars . . .

“ I had the joy of being around McKenna during her middle school years as she attended D.O.G. House youth group where my wife and I served as volunteers. My memories of McKenna are that she was a shy, quiet, and awkward (what middle schooler isn't?) young girl who seemed to take real interest in Jesus. The memory that stands out the most for me, is McKenna's smile. Her smile was so contagious that it brightened the mood of anyone who saw it. I feel for your families loss and the incredible hurt you are going through, but I believe Heaven is a brighter place today because of McKenna's smile. Prayers of strength and peace to you - Craig Allen

“ Blair and Phyllis, I am so very sorry for your loss. A piece of your heart has been taken, and I do understand your pain. I lost my son years ago and I still think of him every day. Take solice in knowing that she is with the Heavenly Father now, but we humans are selfish that way, wanting to keep them with us. We don't understand, but we have no choice. I pray that you find comfort in the days, months, and years to come. Gail Bohnet

“ Blair and Phyllis,

As you know we too lost a daughter earlier this year; the hurt never goes away but time does heal all wounds. Our thoughts and prayers are with you at this time and if there is anything we can do to ease your pain please let us know. McKenna will be missed by all who know her.
