“ Mike and his sister Suzie were students of mine in some of their challenging years when they came to PIC (SkillSource). Mike would always counsel his sister to 'stay in line', that is, when he was in line. Bright, positive and willing to lift others up... that was Mike. It was positive for me to see Mike and Suzie working at the pizza place a few years after we'd had class time together. His smile, positive outlook and personal energy are what I will keep of this man.
