You were the only one who stood to speak at my mother in laws service and it touched my husband, he always thought you were a good man, and I know he was right.the measure of a man has always been his character to me and you have never lacked that May you rest in paradise, you have joined many angels and you will be missed.

“ Dear Dad,

Thank you for teaching me to be kind, respectful and loving to everyone - no matter who they are. Thank you for teaching me to stay away from troublesome people, and to align myself with people who have positive goals and integrity. Thank you for teaching me to always lend a helping hand when and wherever needed. Thank you for teaching me to be considerate of others, and to teach what I have learned so that others may benefit. Thank you for giving me life, and a beautiful stature with which to travel this journey. Thank you for always stressing the importance of education; it has truly become a cornerstone of my life which I use to be a blessing to others.

Rest peacefully, for your work here on this earth is done. Rest peacefully in the knowledge that your family is safe, secure, healthy and thriving - and that we all love one another. I love you.
