“ Sometimes I can feeling looking down on us Hope we are making you proud Tio Andy got his wings so look out for a short Mexican with broken wings tell him we miss him already You n Keith should take him fishing up there Love you all

“ God bless you Mr. Gonzales for being a second father to me while growing up in Moses Lake. You were the master of the bbq on a sunday afternoon at the state park and always had a great sense of humor for life in general. May you rest in peace and say hi to my mom. You and your family are in my prayers.

“ Fond memories of you father and family and Little League days up at Lakeview school ballfield. Always remember God is good, and He is there to welcome Pascual to his new home, which is eternal. God will bless you as you honor father's memory. Eric Skaug
