September 11, 2024

Patricia (Doggett) Bullis, our mom, grandma, great-grandma, sister, aunt and more, was welcomed into heaven on September 11, 2024.

Patricia was born in Wenatchee, WA, in 1936 to Flora Evelyn Doggett and Willam Doggett. She grew up in Cashmere, WA, where she attended school and graduated from Cashmere High School in 1955. Later, she attended Linfield College, in McMinnville, OR.

She married Robert Bullis in 1956. Together they raised a family of four children, while enjoying hobbies of travel, art work, music, and gardening. She was particularly talented in oil painting and cooking. Her career path involved work as a food service supervisor for many years, in Peshastin-Dryden and the Wenatchee School District. Later, she did similar work at Parkside

Manor, in Wenatchee.

Pat was a member of the Cashmere Baptist Church growing up, singing in their choir. Later in life, Bob and Pat moved to Othello and attended the Othello Nazarene Church.

Pat is survived by her son, James Bullis (Mary) of Ashland, Wisconsin,

daughter Linda McTigue

(Mick) of Myrtle Beach, SC, son Don Bullis (Gina) of Othello, WA, and son Doug Bullis (Cheryl)

of Spokane, WA. She was blessed to be survived by many grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Pat is preceded in death by Robert, her husband of 68 years, both of her parents, her younger sister, Judith Nolan, (Norman) and younger brother Richard Doggett (friend Anne).

Services for Pat will include a family graveside service in Othello, WA, at Beth
