“ I shall miss the camaraderie of Pat. Though we weren't often together it was as if no time had passed and we'd pick up where we left off. She was genuine to everyone and I liked that about her. Though "little", she was "mighty" and you always knew where you stood, even in high school. Her memory lives on in all of her high school friends and she will be remembered fondly.##imported-begin##Patsy Loosemore McDonald##imported-end##

“ Heartfelt Condolences to family & friends. Patty and I were Mothers-In-Law together. Her daughter Heather married my son David, much to my delight! Many miles and the big Pacific Ocean kept us from spending much time together, but Patty's perky personality and surprisingly spunky attitude (for one of such small stature), left an indelible impression in my mind and she will always remain a loving and strong presence in my memory.##imported-begin##Kelly Stanley##imported-end##

“ Hi Bob, Got an email from Dewey about your recent loss. If Patricia enjoyed pulling the slots, traveling, and Car Shows she must have been a Great Gal. Our thoughts and prayers will be with you as you face one of those sad transitions life brings to us. Sounds like you have a nice family which is always helpful at times like this.
