My Aunt Pat, she was always like a mother to us and loved us the same as her own. She could make the best homemade bread if she could keep Mary Lee out of the barrel of lard. Except for Phyllis Marcia Ann, Mary Lee and I all had short hair and on Sunday mornings we lined up in the bath room for Aunt Pat to put this snotty stuff on our bangs to make them stick to our foreheads. Saturday night was always bath night, you try fitting 3 little girls in 3 inches of water and getting them clean, of course Phyllis got to bath by herself and then Rick and Danny (Archie) took their bath together and it wasn't until years later that they found out what the red rubber thing with the hose really was for and it wasn't for water fights. I love you Aunt Pat and will miss you so bad BUT I still hate SPLIT PEA SOUP ! Brenda “ Mom, I will always remember that when church was over, we always came home to our Sunday dinner. I remember when you would make fudge & put it on the back porch to cool down. It was kinda funny when you would get my name & Mary's mixed up but you did kinda ask for that naming us so close together. Oh man! you made fresh bread a lot & dinner rolls were so so good. Homemade bread with PB&J to take to school :) You made sure we were dressed up for Chruch & have to love the Easter clothes. I could go on & on, you are truly missed & loved by all. Your daughter Marcia Ann
